Structural Steel -- Supply & Demand in 2008

SFNE is pleased to invite you to attend a Membership Dinner Meeting on April 24, 2008. The event will provide you with both networking opportunities and information about the current market conditions from two of the industry's most highly-respected experts.

Steve Murphy, the Marketing Manager - Construction Products for Gerdeau-Ameristeel, will present his 2008 forecast for structural steel demand. Joe Stratman, Executive Vice President for Nucor Corporation, will provide insight on price trends and discuss structural steel availability.

A Sponsorship Opportunity

SFNE members can demonstrate their support of the structural steel industry and increase their visibility in the marketplace by becoming a Membership Meeting Sponsor. As a sponsor you can set up a table-top exhibit to present your company product or service during the event.

For your sponsorship you will receive a sign and recognition in the marketing materials and program booklet. Tables can be set up prior to registration and remain up through the cocktail reception, dinner and dessert buffet/networking session. The cost for sponsorship is $100.

Current Sponsors: Duncan Galvanizing V & S Taunton Galvanizing
